Not sure about something?

Please read this document carefully so that you understand what you are buying, and then keep it safe for future reference. If there is anything you don't understand or are not sure about, please contact your Financial Adviser. You should feel comfortable that you understand the features of the Veritas Life Investment Bond before deciding to invest.

This Key Features brochure should be read in conjunction with the Veritas Life Investment Bond "Brochure", "Application", "Illustration", "Key Information Document" and "Terms and Conditions" documents.

Why the Veritas Life Investment Bond might be right for you if you:

- Are an expatriate or local, company or trust
- Are aged between 18 and 89
- Are you looking to invest at least £/$/€ 50,000 or equivalent
- Want to invest for a medium to long term
- Are seeking to maximize the tax benefits of an offshore investment
- Want to achieve investment growth aligned to your attitude to risk
- Seeking ways to take regular or one-off withdrawals
- Want a guaranteed maturity value when surrendering the policy at the maturity date
- Are wrapping the policy with a pension and/or trust structure as it is often preferred due to the options available upon death of the underlying plan holder/beneficiary.
- Looking for ways to pass on your wealth to your future generations by using appropriate nominations or trust structures

Risks:

- The investment return may be lower than shown in the illustration and the benefits you receive may be less than you expected.
- The future return depends on the performance of the underlying investments within the policy.
- Your withdrawals will reduce the amount you get back from your investment which may cause you to get back less than you originally invested.
- The value of the policy can go up as well as down depending on the assets it is linked to. It is possible that you could get back less than your initial contribution.
- If you surrender your investment, particularly during the early years, the effect of fees and charges could mean that you get back less than you invested.
- Veritas Life Investment Bond fees and charges may be higher than expected.
- If you or your investment adviser deal excessively and your portfolio value is relatively small, then the value of your policy may be eroded and the costs may be disproportionately high.
- Where the base currency of the policy differs to the assets held, exchange rates may impact the value of the policy.
- Some assets carry a higher level of risk than others and may be subject to sudden and large falls in value or even total loss. Your appointed financial or investment adviser can help guide you as to which assets are suitable to meet your objectives and risk appetite.
- If the policy is surrendered or encashed, the amount that you will receive will be the balance of the assets held in the policy minus any fees and charges due.
- If you become resident or citizen in certain jurisdictions, the tax treatment of your Veritas Life Investment Bond may change.

We cannot provide you with any advice in relation to which assets may be suitable to meet your investment goals. You or the individual you appoint is responsible for the assets selected for your plan.

When thinking about how to invest in assets you have several options:

Self-Investment

You may decide to buy and sell assets within your plan by conducting your own research and selecting your own assets. If you ask us to invest into an asset we do not already offer, we must review it against our acceptance criteria to ensure we can accept it before we can allow you to invest.

Investment Platform

You may decide to appoint an external investment platform to hold your assets in their custody. You or your appointed investment adviser will instruct the investment platform to buy and sell assets on your behalf. We will not charge dealing or custody charges to your plan if you appoint an investment platform.

Investment Adviser

You may decide to appoint an investment adviser to identify investment opportunities who will then instruct us to buy and sell assets on behalf of your plan. Your investment adviser will normally charge a fee for providing any advice and you should discuss this with them before deciding whether this facility is suitable for you. We will deduct Dealing and Custody charges every time your Investment adviser instructs us to buy or sell an asset on behalf of your plan, subject to any conditions explained in the "What are the Veritas Life Investment Bond fees and charges?" section.

Discretionary management

By appointing a discretionary Investment manager to manage the assets within your plan. You are providing authority for them to make investment decisions on your behalf without discussing them with you first. The discretionary Investment manager will buy and sell the assets on your behalf and will hold the value of your plan in their bank accounts or custody accounts, which allows them complete control over what to buy and sell.

We will not charge dealing or custody charges to your plan if you appoint a discretionary Investment manager or investment platform, but they may apply additional fees every time they buy or sell on behalf of your plan.

Appointment of a discretionary investment manager or investment platform will be subject to our acceptance at all times.

Investor Status

Your Investor status is used by us to understand what types of asset you wish to invest in. You should let us know whether you wish to hold retail or non-retail assets. If you do not tell us, we will assume you are a retail investor and wish to hold retail assets only.

It is your responsibility to obtain and read the prospectus and/or offering documents of any assets that you wish to hold in your Reserve. This will help you decide whether the asset is suitable for you.

How will I know how my Veritas Life Investment Bond is performing?

Over time you may wish to change your investment strategy, therefore it is important that you keep track of your plans performance. Our Online Service Centre allows you to log in and monitor your plan from the very beginning. You will have the ability to view your plan details along with the ability to print valuations, both current and historic, review important documents such as your Application Form, Illustration or Key Information Document, research assets through the dedicated Research Centre or request to change investments. We recommend you take advantage by signing up for this service at outset. Keeping a copy of your original Illustration is a reassuring way of confirming that your plan is performing in line with your expectations.

Can I take money out?

- You can surrender your policy in part or take withdrawals provided the cash-in value left isn't below GBP/USD/EURO 10,000 or, if greater, 10% of the original investment or additional investment(s) which is still within its initial charging period.
- If you have made a withdrawal and wish to reinvest it, you can and no additional Initial Period Charge will apply to the amount reinvested. Only one additional payment may be reinvested in respect of each withdrawal and the additional payment amount cannot be more than the amount withdrawn. The additional payment is subject to the minimum additional payment limits.
- If you surrender in part, we'll surrender one or more segments to make the payment. We'll make the payment from your General Transaction Account.
- If you take withdrawals, they will be taken proportionately across all segments. We'll make the payment from your General Transaction Account.
- If you take regular withdrawals, you choose how much (minimum GBP 250 each payment) and how often (every month, quarter, half-year or year) you want us to pay the money into your bank account. We reserve the right to stop the withdrawals if the cash-in value left falls below the minimum allowed.
- If you take money out in excess of the rate at which your investment grows, the value of your policy will reduce.
- We give example cash-in values in your illustration.
- You can surrender your policy in full.

What might I get back if I surrender my Veritas Life Investment Bond?

- You will receive the surrender value of your policy after all assets have been sold and all outstanding fees have been deducted.
- The surrender value will depend on the amount you have invested, the performance of the assets of funds you have chosen over the lifetime of your policy and, in addition, the fees and charges and any withdrawals you may have taken.

What happens if I die?

If you set the policy up on your own life, the policy will end if you die. Veritas Life will pay a lump sum equal to 100.1% of the surrender value on your death.

You can set up the policy on up to 10 lives, so that it continues after first death. Veritas Life will pay a lump sum equal to 100.1% of the surrender value upon death of the last survivor only and the policy will end.

The death benefit is not a guaranteed amount because we cannot guarantee the value of your policy. It will depend on the surrender value at the time of death.

Tax

The tax status of the policy is dependent on current law and regulation of Guernsey and the law governing the tax status of the policyholder, both of which are subject to change. Any legislative change in Guernsey or the policy holder's country of tax residence may remove or undermine any tax benefit obtained from the policy. We recommend that policyholders consult their legal, tax or financial adviser regarding their own position, as Veritas Cell does not provide legal, taxation or investment advice. Veritas Cell cannot be held responsible for any tax benefit which the policyholder may or may not obtain under the policy. Veritas Cell will not be liable for any personal tax that the policyholder is required to pay in relation to the policy or the tax treatment of a policyholder. Please note that tax legislation may change.

Veritas Cell is not liable to tax on the income or gains arising within the funds that made available under the Veritas Life Investment Bond. However, withholding tax may be deducted at source on income arising from investments held in some jurisdictions. This tax may not be recoverable.

Where a policy holds personalised assets, It is regarded as a Personal Portfolio Bond (PPB) as defined by section 517 of the Income Tax (Trading and Other Income) Act 2005. Under the PPB regulations, an annual tax charge is imposed on UK residents. The PPB tax charge assumes a deemed gain of 15% of the lump-sum investment and the cumulative deemed gains for each year your policy has been in force.

The tax charge is levied at the highest rate of tax you pay and top-slicing relief is not available.

A tax charge may arise on one of the following events:

- Death of the policyholder
- Full assignment of a policy for consideration
- Full surrender of a policy (or full surrender of segments within a policy.)
- Asset exchanges may result in a personal tax liability, depending on your country of residence. Any liability must be met from your own resources.

Tax rules are subject to change and the extent of your tax liability depends on your country of residence and personal circumstances. We recommend that you consult a financial or tax adviser for professional guidance. We do not condone tax evasion and our products and services may not be used for evading your tax liabilities.

What are the Veritas Life Investment Bond Fees and Charges?

Here is a summary of those plan charges and how they apply to you.

Upfront Charge

The upfront charge option allows you to pay the full Initial Charging Period at the start of your plan. If you select this option, we will deduct the total Initial Charging Period from your initial lump sum payment, which will mean that the amount available to you to invest will be less than the amount you have paid.

If you choose this option we will apply 100% of your payment, minus the upfront charge, to your plan. In this instance, an early exit charge would not apply.

Initial Charging Period

The initial charging period is based on the premium and paid monthly in arrears for a period of up to 10 years. If you cancel your plan before the end of the initial charging period, we will take the outstanding initial period charges as an early exit charge before paying the remaining plan value to you. The initial charging period exists in order to cover the set-up costs of your plan, including the payment of any commission or fees to your financial adviser.

Fixed Administration Fee

A fixed administration fee is taken annually from your General Transaction Account over the lifetime of your policy.

Transaction Fees

We will recover all transaction fees from your portfolio as they arise. Our aim here is to simply pass on costs incurred and aggregate costs to reduce your fees.

Annual Management Fee

An annual management fee equal to a percentage of the policy, is taken at the end of each calendar month. Note this fee may be applied for the life of the policy.

Investment Adviser Fee

This is an optional fee. If you choose to appoint an investment adviser, they may agree an ongoing fee with you for their services. You may pay the fee directly to your Investment adviser or alternatively, we can facilitate the payment from your plan.

Financial Adviser Fee

This is also an optional fee. The amount of fee should be agreed between you and your financial adviser. The amount we deduct from your plan, if any, will be paid directly to your adviser.

Custody Fee

We will charge a safe custody fee for each asset you hold in the policy and exists for the life of your policy.

Stockbroker Fees

Where a chosen asset requires, it may be necessary to buy or sell the asset through a stockbroker, and any fees will be deducted from the Veritas Life Investment Bond cash account. The current stockbroker fees are available from us on request. Where a discretionary manager or investment platform has been appointed to your plan our stockbroker fees will not apply. You should ask any appointed discretionary manager or investment platform about their stockbroker's fees.

Your financial adviser will provide you with an Illustration and Key Information Document detailing the features specific to your plan including the payment allocation rate, the plan charges and any investment and/or financial adviser fees that may apply.

Other fees may also be applicable to your plan, although these are not necessarily charged by Veritas Life. You may incur fees for the payments made to your plan or for withdrawals taken by telegraphic transfer. Your bank will be able to explain these to you.

What if I change my mind?

During the cooling off period

If the Veritas Life Investment Bond does not meet your requirements, you may cancel it by notifying Veritas in writing within fourteen (14) days from the day the application is signed, and we will give you your money back, your premium will only be invested on 15th day following the date the application is signed.

Please remember to include your policy documents, full name and address and state that you wish to cancel your policy and sent it the address below.

After the cooling off period

We will always assume that you intend to hold your plan for your intended investment term, however if you decide to cancel after the cooling off period and before any initial period charge has been paid in full, an early exit charge will apply which means you could get back less than you paid in. The potential impact of early exit charges are detailed in the Illustration and Key Information Document. We recommend that you always talk to your adviser first, before applying to make any changes to your plan.
